History: JUNETEENTH Festivals across the nation celebrates Black Emancipation Day. Although President Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation in 1862, General Gordon Granger of the US Calvary rode into Galveston, Texas on this 19th day in 1865 and found Blacks still enslaved. He issued an order in accordance with the Emancipation Proclamation granting them their Freedom. A huge celebration commenced, marking this day as Jubilee Day, June 19th Day and eventually “Juneteenth”. Utahans’ have celebrated Juneteenth for over 35 years and our annual statewide Juneteenth Heritage Festival is now in its 21st year. Purpose: To celebrate the history, culture & fortitude of a people that despite being uprooted from their homeland, surviving the Middle Passage and a tumultuous sojourn in America, continues to strive against all odds, realizing that the: “Best Is Yet to Come!”
